Timothy J. Larson Named to Business Street Online's "40 Under 40"

FRESNO, Calif. (March 10, 2010) Dowling, Aaron and Keeler Law Firm is pleased to announce that Timothy J. Larson has been named by Business Street Online as one of the area's top business professionals under the age of 40. The "40 under 40" honorees are recognized as some of the top young business professionals in the public and private sectors in central California who are leaders in the community and already made an impact on the community before the age of 40. They represent the future of the Central Valley, and were nominated by their peers on 40u40.com.

The 2009 honorees for the third annual "40 Under 40" reception were made on March 5, all nominations for the distinction were made online. Awards, presented by BusinessStreetOnline.com and the Fresno Grizzlies, will be given at a reception to be held April 1 at the 600 Club at Chukchansi Park in Downtown Fresno.

A graduate from Boston University School of Law, Larson works with individuals and families on all aspects of estate planning, probate and trust administration. He also works with business owners and other individuals in the areas of corporate and business law. Larson is a member of the Fresno County Bar Association, Estate Planning, Trust and Probate Law Section, Fresno Estate Planning Council and the Tulare-Kings County Estate Planning Council. Larson can be reached at the Firm's Fresno office and by e-mail at tlarson@daklaw.com.
